

ESTATE PLANNING

- Planning for your estate has become more important in recent times which often involves much more than just a simple will drawn up. Family trusts, payouts of superannuation and the tax implications for beneficiaries can all be managed with a careful estate plan.
- Seeking advice is the first step in developing a proper estate plan to assist you in avoiding possible difficulties and disagreements for your beneficiaries.